

Long Term Disability Benefit Summary

Group Long Term Disability insurance through the PSET program, underwritten by Standard Insurance Company (The Standard), helps provide financial protection for insured members by promising to pay a monthly benefit in the event of a covered disability.

Eligibility

Definition of a Member:

1. A regular employee of the Employer;
2. Actively At Work at least 37.5 hours each week (for purposes of the Member definition, Actively At Work will include regularly scheduled days off, holidays, or vacation days, so long as the person is capable of Active Work on those days); and
3. A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada.

Member does not include a temporary or seasonal employee, a full-time member of the armed forces of any country, a leased employee, or an independent contractor.

Class Definition:

Class 1: Partner Attorneys
Class 2: Associates
Class 3: All other eligible Members

Eligibility Waiting Period:

You are eligible on the first day of the calendar month following 90 consecutive days as a Member.

Definition of Disability

Class 1 and 2:

For the benefit waiting period and to the end of the maximum benefit period that Long Term Disability benefits are payable, you will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, or
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent of your Predisability Earnings when working in your own occupation.

You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Class 3:

For the benefit waiting period and the first 24 months that Long Term Disability benefits are payable, you will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, or
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent of your Predisability Earnings when working in your own occupation.

You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

After the own occupation period of disability, you will be considered disabled if, as a result of a physical disease, injury, pregnancy, or mental disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity with material duties of any occupation.
